312/Rinehart

November 14, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative reported at the plant of the International Motor Co., New Brunswick, N.J., for work at 7 a.m.

Operative all during the day made effort to lead Fred Rinehart into a discussion concerning the Hall-Mills Case. Fred Rinehart upon any reference to the Case by his fellow-workers would appear not to hear them, or else would openly refuse to discuss the matter in any way.

During the day Fred Rinehart remarked to Operative, "This is a H--- of a job, I feel like quitting and getting another job somewhere else."

About the only remark Fred Rinehart made concerning the Case, was, "I don't think they will ever get the ones who did the job, but I would like to see them clear up the case, so that we would know something."

Upon leaving the plant at 5 p.m. Operative proceeded to his room, changed his clothing and then proceeded to the Middlesex Lunchroom.

While in the Middlesex Lunchroom, Operative observed two men in conversation, and overheard the following remarks:- "Well, I was up to the Phillips Farm today and met a man who has rented the house - The man who rented the house claims he met a woman who said that old Mrs. DeRussey was her grandmother. This woman told the man who had rented the house that sometime ago there had been another double murder committed on the farm near the farmhouse." The man who made the above remarks, further said, "While I was up at the farm house, there was a man up there making a search of everything; if they could find that fellow the case would be cleared up." Operative could not learn the name of the fellow which the man making the remark referred to.

Operative upon leaving the Middlesex Lunchroom proceeded to the railroad station, and there met several fellows that are known to Operative. Operative and the above mentioned fellows proceeded to the pool room at #425
